Re: Yeshivath Viznitz Dkhal Torath Chaim v. Village of Briarcliff, et al.
Docket No. 23-cv-04384 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern,

This firm represents plaintiffs in the above-referenced litigation, which involves claims against defendants for alleged violations of RLUIPA, 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Fair Housing Act. At present, Your Honor has scheduled a teleconference with the parties for March 12, 2024.

We write in advance of that conference, and with defendants' consent, respectfully to request that the Court adjourn it sine die and temporarily stay discovery in this matter until May 31, 2024. The parties make this request so that they may engage in serious discussions on settlement or other means of resolution, without simultaneously incurring substantial litigation costs. On May 31, 2024, the parties will report the status of their efforts to the Court. If the parties reach an impasse before that date, however, they will advise Your Honor promptly and seek the Court's instruction on setting an appropriate discovery schedule.

We thank the Court for considering this request.

Respectfully,

Albert J. Pirro, Jr.
